SHOOTING GALLERY.

NOVELTY ! ! NOVELTY ! ! !

DURING my recent trip through Europe I noticed shooting galleries erected in all public places of resort where boys, young and middle aged men, were contending in friendly rivalry for the palm of superiority in Archery and Rifle practice. The advantages which I found accruing from these institutions were manifold, and I decided to introduce them to India. I have accordingly imported a couple of galleries which I have fitted up as completely as I could do, and in extending a cordial invite to the Volunteers as well as general public of Bombay to pay them a visit, I take the opportunity of stating that they can pass a pleasant hour and at the same time improve their rifle practice without any apprehension of danger.

The prices are very reasonable.

ANGOSTURA BITTERS

Have long enjoyed the highest reputation on the whole of the American continent and the West Indies for their delightful aroma and flavour, as also for their efficacy as a stimulant in exciting the appetite. They were first introduced generally to the European public at the Great International Exhibition, 1862, where they obtained the award from the Jury of "Honourable Mention for Goodness of quality." In India they are highly esteemed for the properties remarked in America, and for their valuable sanative power in all diseases arising from weakness of the digestive organs.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

MONDAY EVENING, 31ST MARCH 1879.

SATURDAY'S Home telegrams being somewhat quieter in tone, business has been slightly less active here to-day.

Consols are still quoted at 97, French Rentes at 114½, four per cent. Enfaced Rupee Paper 74½, four-and-a-half per cent. 78½.

In the General Produce Markets prices are all unchanged, Coffee being reported firm, Seeds quiet.

Quotations for Indian Exchange Bank shares give Oriental unaltered at £20, Chartered Mercantile also unchanged at £17, Chartered 10s. higher at £16-10, Hongkong and Shanghai 10s. lower at £27-10 per share. The National Bank of India, we hear, has declared a dividend of 2 per cent. for the half year.

Reuter reported the Liverpool Cotton Market on Saturday as closing firm, sales 8,000 bales, prices unchanged except for an advance of 1-16d. in Good Omra. on the spot. Private messages, however, were all decidedly less favourable in tone, and this morning's market, we learn from private sources, opened dull with a decline of 1-16d. per lb. in American to arrive. From New York, Saturday's telegram quotes ready Mid. Uplands unchanged at 10¼ cents., but June shipment had receded from 10·84 to 10·81 cents per lb. The receipts at the ports to date are as follows :—

	This week.	Last week.	1878.	1877.
Saturday's Receipts	9,000	6,000	8,000	4,000
Total since 1st Sept.	4,112,000	...	3,883,000	3 714,000

The Bank of Bombay return for the week ending on Saturday shews the following alterations :—

Public Deposits at H. O.	Dec. Rs.	13,13,557
Do. Branches	Inc. ,,	2,02,628
Other Deposits	Inc. ,,	19,13,138
Government Securities	Inc. ,,	308
Cash Credits	Dec. ,,	17,370
Loans	Dec. ,,	13,66,016
Bills Discounted	Inc. ,,	11,13,710
Cash with Correspondents	Dec. ,,	29,559
Cash and Currency Notes	Inc. ,,	11,75,319

These movements are decidedly more favourable than was generally anticipated, and in all probability there will be no change made in the Bank's rates of discount this week.

EXCHANGE.—Although Reuter quotes Bar Silver in London at 50½d. per oz., a decline of 1-16d., we learn from private advices that the Market was practically unchanged. This, coupled with strong advices from Calcutta, caused rates to open firm with an advance of 1-16d. in Bank Bills, although Private Paper was still negotiable at Saturday's rates. During the day a slightly easier feeling was apparent, and Credits towards the close could be placed at partially 1-16d. lower, especially for forward delivery, which the Banks at the moment seem to favour more than ready Bills. It is not unlikely after the rapid rise we have had we may see a slight reaction, but with the Sterling loan in the background no important fall can well take place. We quote :—

Bank Bills, on demand	1s. 7 9-16d.	per Rs.
Do. 6 months' sight	1s. 7 13-16 to 7¾	,,
Credits, 3	,, ,,	1s. 7 13-16 to 7¾	,,
Documents, 3	,, ,,	1s. 7⅞ to 15-16d.	,,
Francs 3	,, ,,	2·10	,,

In Gold we have not heard of any transactions, but the quotation may be given at Rs. 19-7 per tola.

On Calcutta rates remain unaltered.

GOVERNMENT PAPER is slightly quieter again, and we now quote :—Fours, Rs. 92½ ; New Fours-and-a-half, Rs. 97¾.

SHARES, as a general rule, are quiet with very little doing. Bank of Bombays are 1 per cent. better, closing at Rs. 665. Agra Bank have recovered to Rs. 130. National Bank to Rs. 106. In Land and Press Companies no movement of any kind has taken place. Spinning and Weaving Companies are dull and in some cases lower in value. We quote a decline of Rs. 5 in Dhurrumsey and Oriental, Rs. 10 in Bombay United, Manockjee Petit and Morarjee Goculdass, and Rs. 40 in Khandeish.

COTTON.—The quieter accounts from Liverpool have induced a very dull feeling here to-day, and although prices are in some cases Rs. 2 to Rs. 3 per candy lower, buyers decline to operate and only a very small business has resulted. The fact is we are now ¼d. to 3-16d. per lb. above Home arrival prices, and until this discrepancy is removed either by a decline here or a rise on the other side we cannot see much activity. The arrivals on Saturday were 5,458 bales, making 13,870 bales for the three days. Closing quotations are :—

Good Ginned Broach, April	Rs. 214	per Candy.
Do, Omra, ,,	,, 202	,,
F. G. F. do ,,	,, 196	,,
G. F. do ,,	,, 192	,,

SEEDS.—The enquiry is less active and prices are somewhat easier.

FREIGHTS are dull with very little doing. For Liverpool by steam the rate has declined to 22s. 6d. and by sail we quote 22s. 6d. ready, 25s. May shipment. For the Mediterranean ports cargo is wanted and rates are offering at low rates.

PIECE GOODS continue very steady and from the bazaar a fair business is doing. For 8¼ lb. 39 inch Grey Shirtings the enquiry is active and prices have an upward tendency.

COALS are firm, and there are now buyers but few sellers at an improvement of As. 8 per ton.

THE AFGHAN WAR.

ANOTHER BRUSH WITH THE ENEMY.

LAHORE, MARCH 31.

A small force under Major Humfrey, with Dr. Duke on special political duty, was recently detached via Mushki through Shorawok and Shorode, two of the outlying districts of the Pishin collectorate, to purchase camels and supplies for the Kandahar and Pishin forces. On the 27th this force was attacked near Shorawok by a number of Baretchi Afghans, variously estimated from 800 to 2,000. The enemy were defeated and retreated in fair order, leaving sixty men dead on the ground and 25 wounded, who were taken prisoners. On our side four men of the 1st Punjab Infantry were wounded, but none killed. The troops behaved splendidly. Since the fight five malliks have given themselves up. Two malliks were killed and one wounded. The Baretchi force is said to have been completely dispersed.

The Bombay Port Trust pays Government the whole of the interest on its capital debt for the financial year 1878-79 which ended yesterday, and has left a balance of fully Rs. 30,000 to be applied towards the reduction of principal. This is a remarkably good result for a year of bad trade, and we believe it may be in great measure ascribed to the increase of ground rents for land let on lease, the value of which is now steadily improving in consequence of the progress towards completion of the Prince's Dock.

MR. MCILWRAITH, partner in the firms of Smith Fleming and Co. and W. Nicol and Co., is said by a contemporary to have published a statement defending himself and his late partners from the charge of having helped to glut the Indian markets with English yarn and piece goods. It is characteristic of Mr. McIlwraith to pose as an injured innocent by refuting a charge which has no foundation while leaving unanswered others that are well-founded. Most people are aware that the large operations carried on by the firms of Smith Fleming and W. Nicol with the proceeds of the Glasgow Bank acceptances had to do with exports of produce from Bombay, and not with imports into this country. Nicol and Co. did not do a large import business but they were the principal exporting house in Bombay; and the capital the Glasgow Bank placed at their command enabled them to control the cotton market, to the despair often of legitimate traders. Mr. McIlwraith knows this very well, and we wonder he has not sense enough to hold his tongue instead of trying to provoke criticism.

THE Englishman says a foolish rumour got abroad in Calcutta on Wednesday afternoon, in consequence, no doubt, of the unfavourable character of the statement of the Directors, as telegraphed by Reuter, that there was a run upon the Oriental Bank. Not only was this not the case, adds our contemporary, but, we understand, the withdrawals from the Calcutta Branch, since the publication of the telegram, have been few and insignificant in amount. It seems to be generally felt that the Directors have acted wisely in taking the public into their confidence, and that the losses referred to, however they may affect the value of the shares, are not of a kind to touch the credit of the Bank. As to any apprehension of a serious run, the current deposits, on which the Bank allows no interest, are so trifling in amount, that anything of the kind is impossible

THE Civil and Military Gazette (Sind issue):—We hear that the 19th Bombay N. I. are hard at work road-making about 45 miles up the Bolan Pass, working towards "Durwazeh." They find the weather cold, which is perhaps not to be wondered at, the elevation being over 4,600 feet. On the 14th, five camp followers were frozen to death at "Durwazeh." Although the regiment had not had any fighting, they had had plenty of hard work road-making, and they will certainly have "made their mark" in the country and done more towards settling the "Afghan difficulty," than any regiment in the Bombay Army. On completion of the work they will probably garrison Quetta, or the Pishin Valley.

A PAPER which has been placed at our (Indian Daily News) disposal by Mr. H. A. Frith, Emigration Agent for British Guiana, gives a statement of the savings brought back by return emigrants from British Guiana to India between the year 1857 and 1879. An examination of the figures furnished shows that the number of return emigrants was largest in 1872, when a shipload of 661 souls returned with savings of money and jewellery amounting to no less than Rs. 2,78,109-6, or an average of over Rs. 420 for each emigrant. This, however, was for some reason an exceptional year, as the average seems generally to be about Rs. 200 for each man, woman, and child. From the same source we gather that many labourers yearly return to the colony after a previous term of service, and some of these even go so far as to pay the cost of their passages to it.

A RANGOON contemporary says that the ultimatum which is to be despatched to the King of Burma will contain the following conditions:—(1.) A British Garrison to be cantoned at Mandalay and paid by the Burmese Government. (2.) The British Residency to be fortified. (3.) Nothing of importance to be undertaken by the Burmese Government unless with the sanction previously obtained of the British Resident, who is to have free admittance to interviews with the King in a manner becoming the dignity of H. M.'s representative. (4.) A proper and enlightened system of administration both fiscal and judicial to be introduced into Upper Burma and faithfully carried out by the King's Government. (5.) All expenses attending the carrying out of these measures to be borne by the Burmese Government. (6.) To cancel all existing treaties with Foreign Courts, and to enter into no similar arrangements—nor to entertain any foreigner in the King's service without the sanction of the British Government.

THE Statesman—A correspondent has sent us a translation of some remarks made by the Some Prokash in reference to the action taken against it by the Government. The translation is a perfectly honest one, we are sure, but the English phraseology employed is sometimes a little peculiar and not readily comprehensible. One or two things, however, come out clearly enough. In the first place the Some Prokash defends itself and its Lahore correspondent, and repudiates everything approaching to disloyalty. We should say that the tone in which it justifies itself smacks of contumacity, were we not, as we have said, a little doubtful about our correspondent's English. However that may be, it is clear that the Some Prokash is determined not to sit on the stool of repentance, and we can only infer that the proprietors have resolved to adopt euthanasia as the simplest solution of their difficulties with the Government. Another fact which we learn from this translation greatly surprises us. The Some Prokash writer says that, up to the date of writing, "we have not received any order from the Government, but from the Government letter published in the Statesman we see that the Secretary to the Bengal Government has requested, through the Commissioner of the Presidency Division, the Magistrate of the 24 Pergunnahs, to take a bailbond of Rs. 1,000 from the publisher of the Some Prokash." We cannot suppose that the Some Prokash would make this statement if it were untrue; and it does seem very strange that the Government should allow the publisher to learn first from our columns that he was to be asked to enter into a bond. This seems to be a discourteous, altogether unworthy of the Government. We think it highly probable that the publisher will refuse to enter into a bond giving the money security demanded, and will prefer to suspend the publication of the paper. This is, perhaps, to be regretted; but we hardly see how he could do otherwise, considering the risks to which he would be liable under the present state of the law.

THE Indian Church Gazette—There has been of late an unusual demand on the part of Government for returns from the Ecclesiastical Department. The most recent has been a request to be furnished with the statement of the "average attendance" of the Civil and Military servants of the Queen at Divine Service. Some clergymen we are aware, make a point of having their congregations counted, but even they would scarcely be able to distinguish a servant of the Queen from a person who does not enjoy that honourable position. When, too, the varying character of an Indian congregation at different times of the year is taken into account, it will be seen that any returns of the kind asked for must be extremely uncertain. Indeed the first response to the Government requisition was manifestly so untrustworthy, that a second demand, more stringent and exact in its conditions, has been issued. According to this amended enquiry, Chaplains are expected to return the number of Civil and Military servants, Covenanted and Uncovenanted, in their stations; and in one Province the Chaplains are referred to the Civil List for this information. Few of them are likely to possess the book; but in any case it will be found to include only the upper grades of Government servants and to exclude clerks, &c., who, as far as numbers go, are the most important section of civil employés. The Secretary for the Home Department further intimates that, even in the Military returns, wives and families are not to be included, as Government does not recognize any obligation to provide ecclesiastical ministrations for them. Surely, as regards the wives and children of non-commissioned officers and private soldiers, this is a new view of Government obligations. Altogether there is, in the terms in which these enquiries are framed, an apparent desire to minimize the benefits derived from the Ecclesiastical Establishment and to present it in the most unfavourable light.

MARINE COURT OF ENQUIRY.—A Marine Court of Enquiry will be held at the Fort Police Court on Friday, the 4th instant, at noon, to enquire into the circumstances of a collision which occurred near Bombay on the morning of the 22nd February last, between the Indian Government steamer Tenasserim and the bugla Musaffa. C. P. Cooper, Esq., the Chief Presidency Magistrate, Captain W. T. Crockett, late I. N., Captain C. Fraser, commander of the P. and O. steam-ship Geelong, have been appointed by Government to conduct the above investigation.

EVADING THE LIQUOR LICENCE.—Kodadad Rustom, a sherbet shopkeeper on the Upper Duncan Road, was yesterday charged, at the instance of Mr. Inspector Brawin, before Mr. W. Webb, with selling spirituous liquors by retail without a licence from the Collector of Bombay. He was adjudged guilty and fined Rs. 50.

GAMBLERS.—Romandoo Francis and five others were yesterday charged, at the instance of Mr. Constable Moriarity, before Mr. Nana Morojee, with being found gaming in a public place. They were all adjudged guilty and fined Rs. 8 each.

THE postal communication with Bombay, which Mr. James promised us, when he took away our land line, should be improved by the steamers so as to leave no hiatus "to be wept for," has gone on from bad to worse! As the most recent example of punctuality, we received our letters and papers from Bombay, due on Thursday 20th, on Friday the 21st in the afternoon! We have taken the trouble to trace the vessel's course as follows:—The Akola left Bombay on the 17th at 10 a. m.; arrived at Mandvie on the 19th at 7-30 a. m.; left Mandvie on the 20th at 10-25 a. m.; arrived at Kurrachee on the 21st at 0-35 p. m. It thus appears that she delayed at Mandvie for 27 hours and 5 minutes. We should very much like to know what kept a mail-packet steamer there so long? She ought to have left Mandvie by 10 or 11 a. m. on the 19th, say noon at latest, and been in Kurrachee by 1 or 2 p. m. on Thursday, the 20th. Now all our friends are urging us to complain bitterly against this shameful and continued neglect of our interests and convenience. By what we hear, too, unless our contemporaries in Bombay take some active measures, they will find their pockets touched, as people in Sind and Kurrachee hardly care to receive a batch of journals so old that their "freshness has departed," however duly conducted they may be. News with the "gloss off" is hardly news at all. While on the subject we may as well mention that we got three days mails together on Saturday from the North West, Lahore, &c., which should have reached us day by day. For this we presume we have the I. V. S. Railway to thank, and we express our acknowledgments for its exemplary punctuality accordingly!—Civil and Military Gazette (Sind issue.)

THE BYCULLAH SCHOOLS.

THE annual meeting of the Bombay Education Society, to be followed by the distribution of prizes to the schools by H. E. the Governor, will take place at half-past five o'clock this evening. The public are invited to the latter. The covered play-shed will be handsomely decorated and the proceedings will be opened by the presentation of the annual report, which, it must be gratifying to the friends of the institution to hear, is of a most satisfactory character both as regards the pecuniary position, progress, and the internal economy of the schools. A choir of about fifty schoolchildren will next sing a selection of songs, and from the known proficiency of the carefully trained scholars the visitors may feel confident of hearing some pleasant vocal harmony. The distribution of medals and handsome editions of the most popular works to the prize winners will follow by His Excellency, who will afterwards deliver an address, will close the proceedings.

A CHARGE OF CHEATING DISMISSED.

AT the Fort Police Court on Thursday last, the hearing of a charge of cheating brought by Cursetjee Cowasjee against Dossbhoy Pallonjee Cama was concluded before Mr. Nana Morojee. The charge was laid in respect of 135 bales of cotton consigned by the defendant to England through the prosecutor's firm.

The magistrate, in disposing of the case, said.—Two witnesses have given evidence contradictory of each other. The mucadum says the prosecutor's brother took an inspection of one of the lots of cotton that were consigned. He is a witness for the prosecution not only favouring the other side. He was examined first; and I suppose he had no notion that any enquiry on that point would be made. Nevertheless, he not only clearly deposed to the fact, but gave details which lead me to believe that an inspection was taken. The witness Framjee states the inspection. I suspect his memory to be at fault. I hold an inspection was taken, and if so, the prosecutor had as good an opportunity as the defendant to know the quality of the cotton; and in making these advances the prosecutor ought to have been guided accordingly. Before a person can expect a criminal court to punish a matter of a past offence, he must have himself exercised ordinary prudence. If he trusts simply to another man's word in his business transactions, he might be entitled to recover damages in a civil court, but can hardly expect a criminal court to move in his behalf. The value of the cotton advanced upon was only a little short of the amount advanced; and considering that there was something over Rs. 1,800 to the defendant's credit in the prosecutor's hand, it cannot be said that defendant deliberately committed the offence of cheating as contemplated by the Penal Code. Defendant must have fully expected to realise the amount of the advance he had received, and something more for the Bengalee market; and considering the ruling rates at the time, his expectations cannot be considered unreasonable. The accidental, unexpected, and heavy fall in the price of cotton in England, shortly after the arrival of the consignment there, led to events unforeseen by the defendant as also by the prosecutor; otherwise there would, as it appears to me, have been no cause for prosecutor to take the present proceedings, nor probably for the defendant to have recourse to the Insolvent Debtors' Court. Under all these circumstances, I do not consider that a case of cheating has been made out, and I therefore direct the defendant to be discharged.

A RUFFIANLY ATTACK.

ABOUT 9 o'clock on Sunday night last, a ruffianly attack was committed upon Mr. Mathuradas Lowjee, the prosecutor in the charges of fraud brought against the directors of the four mills that were managed by Nursey Kessowjee. At the time mentioned, he left the house of Mr. Cursondas Vullubdas in Bazar Gate Street in order to go to his own in the Bhattia quarter at Mody Khana. When passing by the house of Khutao Macunjee in the former street he noticed six persons, with whom he was not acquainted, sitting in the verandah. As he turned into a cross street and approached his own house, he was struck two blows from behind. He staggered and fell to the ground, when other persons joined the assailants and struck him more blows; and he could see among them four of the persons whom he had seen sitting in Khutao Macunjee's verandah. At the time of the assault, one of the ruffians is alleged to have said to his victim—"Take Kessowjee," which might imply that what he then received was to be considered by him as a present from Kessowjee Naik, or something to that effect. On picking himself up, Mathuradas raised an alarm and ran to a policeman's post; but the functionary expected to be on duty at the time afforded but another illustration of the remark that "policemen are to be found everywhere except where they are wanted." Soon afterwards a report was made to Mr. Smith, Superintendent of the Fort Division; and Mathuradas was examined by Dr. Byramjee Cowrjee, who found a fresh wound on the right side of the head and other wounds about his person. None of the assailants have been arrested. Mathuradas must have had a narrow escape of his life, and though wounded he is able to move about.

AMONG THE GODS.—The Bombay Gazette, in describing the internal arrangements of the new High Court in Bombay, says that the seat of the Chief Justice is "perched high up in the clouds." A very proper too! Wasn't it from the clouds that Jupiter launched his thunderbolts? Why not the Chief Justice of Bombay.

"Aloft, in awful state,
The god-like hero sits."

Chairman hopes he will be comfortable.

Later, in the same paragraph, it is said that in Sir Charles Sargent's Court, Mr. Latham, who tried to make himself audible to the learned Judge, remarked that "no counsel could continually bear the strain upon his lungs which was found necessary to secure a hearing."

Very distressing for—Mr. Latham. But Charivari has not been favoured with the learned Judge's opinion on the subject.—Charivari.

Green, Brooks, Kapadia, B. M. Wagle, Gray, Crawford, Bald, Comber, Treasurywalla, Patell.

After dinner, which, by the bye, was excellently served,

The R. W. District Grand Master proposed the usual "toasts of obligation," viz.—"The Queen Empress and Union of Great Britain and Ireland;" "His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, Grand Master"; the Grand Masters of Scotland and Ireland; and "The Pro-Grand Master, the Deputy Grand Master, and the rest of the Grand Officers."

The R. W. District Grand Master (R. W. Bro. Tyrrell Leith)—Brethren, a bumper toast. (Cheers.) R. W. Sir, M. W. Sir, and Brethren, this evening we have met together at the Half-yearly Communication of the District Grand Lodge of Bombay, but we have also met to celebrate a more interesting and special event, namely, a Festival in honour of one who has ruled over us for a period extending over nearly one-third of a century. (Cheers.) I need scarcely say, Brethren, that the toast of this evening, the toast which we ought to drink with the utmost cordiality is the health of R. W. Bro. James Gibbs —[cheers]—Past District Grand Master of Bombay and its territories. It is with the knowledge of all of you, that within the past few weeks there have been numerous addresses and speeches delivered in honour of our R. W. Brother. [Applause.] That fact shows the unanimity with which all classes who have been brought into contact with our R. W. Bro. wish to do him honour—[hear, hear] —and I think I am re-echoing your sentiments when I say that we English Masons of Bombay do not wish to lag behind. [Cheers.] It was my privilege in another place to present on your behalf to our R. W. Past District Grand Master, before he vacated the chair which he has so honourably and zealously filled, an address from the Masons of Bombay of the English Constitution; and on that occasion I did not attempt to weary you for time, space and the extreme heat I was obliged to adjourn the speeches to the banquet. Now, Brethren, you will permit me to say, without the slightest affectation that I address you with no small diffidence, for I am aware of the floods of eloquence to which we have listened from time to time during the past few weeks upon this very subject. To use a homely simile, I find that the milk has been skimmed of all the cream. [Laughter.] But I am comforted by the reflection that in spite of the exhaustive treatment of most of the points which bear upon the present subject, there is one which has remained untouched, and that is the services of our Past R. W. District Grand Master to the English Craft on this side of India—[hear, hear]—and I may be permitted to add the gratitude and affection with which every English Mason in this District, I am sure, regards him. (Cheers.) Brethren, I wish to eschew all attempts at rhetoric and on this occasion to tell you a plain, unvarnished tale of the Masonic career of one of the oldest Masons in India. [Cheers.] After leaving left the classic seat of Shelley-bury in 1847—a place which recals to your Past R. W. District Grand Master, as well as to myself the pleasantest memories of youth,—R. W. Bro. Gibbs landed on the shores of India, and lost no time in seeking admission into Masonry in Lodge "Perseverance" under the Scotch Constitution at Bombay. (Applause.) Thus as soon as our Past R. W. District Grand Master became his own master he entered Masonry. (Applause.) He was passed in the same Lodge, and then occurred an episode in his career which he must look back to with considerable gratification —he was raised in the Scotch Lodge St. Andrews in the East at Poona, under the auspices of one of the greatest Masons India has ever known, Dr. Burnes. Unfortunately our R. W. Brother's health failed, and he was obliged to proceed to Europe. While on furlough, the first thing he did was to join, in 1848, an English Lodge, "Stability," in London, and, no doubt, many of you will agree with me that it is a most admirable likeness. (Renewed cheering.) This, R. W. Sir, is a memorial which you have allowed us to keep of you. You must also kindly allow us at present you a memorial of ourselves. (Cheers.) When we look upon this picture, we will always think of you; when you look upon this Cup, pray think of us. (Cheers.) R. W. Sir, I beg to pledge you in this Cup. Whatever you drink from it I am sure you will recal the happy period of your rule. (Cheers).

The Cup (a beautiful silver vase on a carved black wood stand) was filled with champagne and handed round for each Brother to pledge the toast.

R. W. Bro. Gibbs, who on rising to reply was greeted with loud and prolonged cheering, said—R. W. Sir, M. W. Sir, and Brethren all, it is a matter of very great difficulty for me to address you this evening, for I must confess that the many kind speeches that have been made in my behalf, the very warm receptions that I have met with at the places where I have been entertained of late, have really at last brought me to detest, if such a thing were possible, my own name—(laughter)—and I think at the present occasion, I must not be ashamed that I am among my brother Masons (cheers),—that I am among those over whom it has been my duty to rule for the last nine years—and over more orderly, more kind, or more obedient subjects no authority could ever have reigned—if it had not been that I knew of great kindness of your hearts by which you have passed over any shortcomings, and the very kind manner that you have always exhibited towards me on every occasion that I have come in contact with you, I should be at a loss to say anything. I feel the very high compliment that you have paid me in wishing to have my portrait upon the walls of your Grand Lodge Room. When I think of the very very handsome testimonial with which you have presented me this night as a memorial of your kindness towards me, I am, I must say, extremely grateful. Those words are not sufficiently expressive. I thank you most sincerely for the great kindness you have shown me, and if I may be allowed to say it, in spite of those cheers which were given for me—the last two cheers which you gave had more effect upon me than the others. Brethren, it is a very difficult thing to tear oneself away from that which has been one's home for something like two-and thirty years: and I feel now day by day more and more difficulty of leaving. This is also mixed with a feeling that I wish next Monday was the day I had to go, and not Monday week. The pressure is coming very strong upon me, the kindness of friends is increasing and the burden of tearing up against that kindness is increasing also. But I have one consolation in saying good bye to you this evening, in knowing that when I am saying good bye in one respect to a great number of my friends in Bombay, I am not taking in spirit a farewell of them, because I know that they will, at all events for some time to come, give an occasional kind thought to one who is far away from them. [Cheers.] And I need hardly say a similar kind thought will pervade my heart whenever Masonic meetings take place, I may be attending say a five or six thousand miles away. [Cheers.] Your new District Grand Master has informed you to a certain extent of the progress of Masonry since I had the honour of being Provincial Grand Master. I think there is one other fact which I may mention, and that is that during the nine years that I have had the honour of being District Grand Master 600 initiations have taken place, 575 passings, and 521 raisings, and 102 Worshipful Masters have been installed in the Eastern Chair. [Cheers.] Curious enough, I believe my patent as District Grand Master was one of the last acts of the late Lord Zetland, just before he resigned office. The death, which occurred a few days after wards in 1873, very frequently took place just about the time when the first three Hindoo Masons were initiated into Freemasonry. Lord Zetland had this matter considerably at heart, and he was very anxious that his predecessor's views, those of his late Royal Highness the Duke of Sussex, should be carried out, and that Masonry should extend its benefits and its civilizing knowledge among the Hindoos of India. [Hear, hear.] I believe he lived to see the first three initiations which took place at home. Since I have had the honour of being District Grand Master, we have been visited here by the Grand Master of England. [Applause.] Never before had the Grand Master of England visited this District. His Royal Highness honoured Bombay above every other place in India by presiding at a most interesting Masonic festival, and as I mentioned to you at the time, he expressed to me afterwards his very great satisfaction at the excellent manner in which the Brethren on that occasion behaved: he had never seen any Masonic ceremony of the kind carried out so successfully without a single hitch from beginning to end. He was extremely pleased, and I may say it was one of the points in His Royal Highness's commendation at which I was much gratified that he acknowledged the justice of the principle on which I had acted for so long in this country, namely, to try as much as possible to run hand in hand with our Brethren of the Scotch Constitution. (Cheers.) Brethren, I have often said to you that I believe Freemasonry is universal. (Hear, hear.) I believe that Masonry does an immense deal of good everywhere, but I am convinced from the experience of now many years in this country that Masonry is doing and will do far more good in this country. (Cheers.) I believe that the introduction of Masonry among the natives of this country will go farther to lead them forth into the paths of true civilization than any other system could do. (Cheers.) Brethren, it does not behove me to speak long to-night. Your Right Wor. District Grand Master has been over kind in the allusions he has made to me; and yourselves have been extremely kind to me, first of all in asking me to sit for this portrait, which now hangs upon the wall, and also in presenting me with this handsome memorial. I may say with regard to that, that it may safely be said to be a memorial which is unmatched in any part of the world. The silver portion, which forms the cup, may be imitated, and we cannot exactly tell the date at which the silver was fashioned, but in the earth: but my worthy friend, Wor. Bro. Rienzi Walton, informs me that the stand to the cup, if it is not a proof of the antiquity of Masonry, is a proof of the antiquity of this good wood, for according to the most scientific opinions that we could obtain, this wood is full of Masonic characters. This stand was made from a piece of wood which was found at about 64 feet below the level of the present new Prince's Dock. We are indebted to the Grand Architect of Scottish Freemasonry in India, Bro. Thomas Graham, for this very handsome portion of the present I have received this night with such warm feelings. Now, Brethren, once more let me say "farewell." It is an awkward word to say; but as I said before, I feel I am not leaving you altogether, but I trust I shall be present in spirit with you in this Hall. [Applause.] I can safely say that the kindness I have received from Masonic Brethren in Bombay will ever remain deeply impressed upon me, and their prosperity both as a Masonic body and individually will ever be an object with me of most sincere solicitude. [Loud cheers.]

"Three cheers" were called for for R. W. Bro. Gibbs, and were given with a will.

The next toast was "The Grand Master, S. F. I.," proposed by the R. W. District Grand Master, who in the course of his remarks, assured M. W. Bro. Balfour, on behalf of the English Masons of this District that as long as he had the honour to rule over the English District Grand Lodge nothing should come between the English and the Scotch Craft which would cause the slightest dissension, as far as his humble efforts in the matter were concerned. He would conclude by proposing the admirable principle which had been enunciated by R. W. Bro. Gibbs, that Freemasonry was universal, and though they might belong to different jurisdictions, they must never forget they were members of one Craft. (Applause). There were no jealousies between the two Constitutions in Bombay, but cordial Masonic friendship and good feeling. (Cheers).

M. W. Bro. Balfour (G. M. S. F. I.) in reply said the sentiments given utterance to by R. W. Bros. Gibbs and Leith were fully concurred in by him, and he believed also by every Scotch Mason in B

ILL HEALTH.—Numerous diseases arise or cannot be got rid of by reason of impurity of blood. OLD DOCTOR JACOB TOWNSEND'S SARSAPARILLA has now for nearly half a century been prescribed in all such cases, as cleansing, tonic, and restorative qualities render it peculiarly efficacious in cases of Biliousness, Disordered Stomach or Liver, Headache, Skin, Blotches, Piles, and ailments arising from a tainted state of the blood or debilitated constitution. To those living in crowded cities or in unhealthy districts its effects are magical. Many remedies for particular diseases fail in consequence of the enfeebled and impure state of the system. Cleanse, strengthen, and purify the system and blood, and maladies which have long prevailed will vanish or yield to other remedies.

In conjunction with this invaluable Preparation may, with great advantage, be taken the OLD DOCTOR'S SARSAPARILLA PILLS, aperient and alterative, but not purgative. Wholesale Agents Messrs. Bathgate and Co., for Bengal and Calcutta; Messrs Harry and Co., Vepery, Madras; or at the Sarsaparilla Depot, 131, Fleet Street, London.

☞ NOTICE.—Fraudulent imitations of old Dr. Jacob Townsend's Sarsaparilla are being sold. The genuine is sold only in Red and Blue Wrappers, the Old Dr's head is the centre, and the British Government stamp affixed.

I received my shirts yesterday and the one I have tried on fits me very satisfactorily.
Baroda, 2nd Dec.

Some three years ago you took my measurement for some white shirts with collars attached. I liked those shirts very much, and if you will make me up half a dozen of the same kind I shall be obliged. I send you this order instead of getting them here, simply because I liked the last so much.
Calcutta, 31st December 1878.

Our new Catalogue, patterns of new Coloured Materials, and instructions for self measurement, will be forwarded on application.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE (late Army Medical Staff) discovered a remedy, to denote which he coined the word CHLORODYNE. Dr. BROWNE is the sole inventor, and it is therefore evident, that as he has never publish d the formula, anything else sold under the name CHLORODYNE must be a piracy.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—All attempts at analysis have failed to discover its composition.

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated publicly in Court that Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the inventor of CHLORODYNE, that the whole story of the defendant was deliberately untrue, and he regretted to say it had been sworn to.—See the Times, July 13, 1864.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium.
